

Course title: ESOL for Citizenship - Entry Level Speaking and Listening	Start date: October 2011
Entry requirements: An assessment will be given by a teacher from Bfluent School of English at one of the enrolment sessions. The teacher will then advise you about your level and, if appropriate, suggest a suitable class.	Duration of course: 9 weeks
Ideal for: For people who wish to apply for citizenship in Britain, Indefinite leave to remain, or a spouse visa (A1 qualification), or someone who would simply like to know more about living in the UK.	Cost: £250

Brief course description:

To apply for UK citizenship, you need to demonstrate your knowledge of life in the United Kingdom as well as proving that your speaking and listening skills are adequate to cope with everyday life.

At Bfluent, we have professional teachers to assist you to prepare for A1 Entry 1 Speaking and Listening exam for your visa requirements.

Details:

ESOL for Citizenship will cover many areas about living and working in the UK.

The class will help you to:

- ⤴ Improve your English
- ⤴ Prepare you for the ESOL Skills for Life qualification in Speaking and Listening
- ⤴ Learn more about life in the UK in order to facilitate effective integration. Topics cover materials such as:
 - ⤴ A general history of the United Kingdom
 - ⤴ Immigration issues
 - ⤴ Gender-issues; in particular the changing role of women; equal rights and opportunities
 - ⤴ Ethnic diversity
 - ⤴ The Christian religion; history of the Church; customs and traditions; secularism etc.
 - ⤴ The British Constitution; the Monarchy and the government (central and local)
 - ⤴ Rights and responsibilities
 - ⤴ Everyday needs such as housing, local services, banks and credit, insurance, finding a doctor, schools and education, training facilities and centres, travel and transport, driving, identity documents etc.
 - ⤴ Employment issues; equal rights and discrimination; tax; childcare etc.

Methodology:

Classes are taught as a group and students will create a personal portfolio during the course.

Assessment:

Successful completion of the course will be based on assessment of the portfolio.

Further study: